VACANCY NOTICE

Senior Legal Officer

F-4

E-LAOJSLCIP-400039/074000-D

LAO

22 October 2010

21 December 2010

This appointment is for a three-year duration with a six-month probationary period. The OPCW is a non-career organisation with limited staff tenure. The total length of service for Professional staff shall not exceed 7 years. The Director-General retains the discretion not to make any appointment to this vacancy, to make an appointment at a lower grade, or to make an appointment with a modified job description. Several vacancies may be filled.

Principal Functions

Under the supervision of the Legal Adviser the incumbent performs the following duties:

Provides legal advice and assistance on administrative law issues and operational activities of the technical secretariat:

- Researches and drafts legal opinions on administrative law issues (e.g., in respect of claims, allegations and complaints, investigations, disciplinary matters, etc.), some of which are complex and/or sensitive in nature;
- Reviews or prepares legal opinions and studies as requested by the Office of the Director-General and other divisions, branches or offices of the Secretariat on the interpretation of internal rules and procedures, such as the Financial Regulations and Rules, the Staff Regulations and Rules, relevant decisions of the Policy-Making Organs and other internal legislation;
- Drafts the OPCW submissions to, and appears before, the OPCW Appeals Council and/or the ILO Administrative Tribunal and researches, as required, other issues in respect of recourse matters;
- Reviews or drafts administrative directives and other internal legislation;
- Drafts or reviews drafts of memoranda of understanding and other forms of agreement to be entered into by the Technical Secretariat relating to (1) arrangements for activities to be conducted by the Technical Secretariat (such as voluntary contributions agreements), (2) cooperation/coordination with other international organisations, and (3) the supply of goods and services;

As instructed by the Director-General, conducts investigations, or provides support and advice to investigations, into alleged misconduct or other alleged violations of the OPCW's regulations and rules and administrative instructions;

- Upon appointment by the Director-General, or as delegated by the Legal Adviser, serves on internal advisory bodies and committees

Provides legal advice on the implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention:

- Drafts legal opinions on issues related to the implementation of the Convention as requested by the Office of the Director-General, the Policy-Making Organs or their subsidiary bodies;
- Reviews and assists in the negotiation of agreements with Member States relating to the implementation of the CWC verification regime and on the privileges and immunities of the OPCW;
- Reviews draft national implementing legislation and related measures submitted by Member States to the Legal Adviser for comments, drafts the Legal Adviser's legal advice/comments thereon, and provides advice to National Authorities on CWC obligations;
- Represents the Office of the Legal Adviser in OPCW training courses and delivers lectures to the representatives of the Member States and the public on legal aspects of the CWC;
- Renders legal advice during, and prepares documents for consultations between Member States.

Requirements

Knowledge and skills:

- Advanced university degree in Law, with specialisation in International Law, Disarmament or Administrative Law in addition to a first degree in Law;
- Excellent communication skills – both written and oral; and good negotiation skills;
- Excellent legal drafting skills;
- Strong analytical skills and proficiency in legal research;
- Leadership skills, maturity and good judgement;
- Strong planning and organisational skills, and ability to work under pressure of time and urgent deadlines;
- Flexibility and problem solving skills;
- Tact, discretion and the ability to work harmoniously in a multi-cultural environment;
- Knowledge and practice of the Dutch legal system would be an asset.

Experience:

- At least 8 years of progressively responsible experience in international organisations and/or government service, in the areas of International Law, Disarmament or Administrative Law;
- Knowledge of the legal aspects of the United Nations common system, including the case law of international administrative tribunals;
- Experience in the UN common system or in the OPCW would be an asset.
